

Mr. Rutledge submitted the following amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Sec. 1, insert at end of line 4, "and shall, upon false representation that he is over the age of twenty-one."

Sec. 1, line 4, after the preceding amendment insert "to be drank on the premises."

Which were adopted.

Mr. Stewart submitted the following amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Sec. 1, strike out the word "apply," and insert "obtain."

Sec. 1, after the word "dealers," strike out down to the words "any spirituous."

Which were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Stewart,

The further consideration thereof was postponed,

And said bill referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The bill entitled an Act to repeal Section 2, of chapter 2, Section 8, of chapter 4, and Section 3, of chapter 10, of an Act passed January Session, 1872, chapter 377, entitled an Act to repeal an Act passed at January Session, 1870, entitled an Act to repeal an Act passed at January Session, 1868, entitled "Public Education," providing a general system of free public education, providing a general system of free public schools for the State of Maryland, and to repeal all laws inconsistent therewith, and to re enact the same with amendments, in so far as the same relates to Harford county, and to substitute the following Sections in lieu thereof, to apply to Harford county, and to be arranged in Public Local Laws, Article 12, title "Harford county,"

Being upon a third reading,

Mr. McGlone moved that said bill be referred to the Committee on Education.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,

Mr. Fenton demanded the previous question,

The question then being,

"Shall the main question be now put?"

It was sustained.

The question then recurring upon the motion submitted by Mr. McGlone,

Mr. Rutledge demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
